Major: International Affairs Expected Grade: A

Note: The instructor will NOT read these responses until AFTER grades have been submitted to the Registrar's Office. Your responses are to be totally anonymous!

1) What did you like best about this course?

Learning in-depth (well, for a lower-level course) about so many intriguing & important issues! Really interesting & good to be aware of.

2) What did you like least about this course?

Figuring out how the topics intersected & how to take notes

3) What are the instructor's strong points as a teacher?

Engaging, cares for subject matter, amiable, approachable, & helpful

4) What are the instructor's weak points as a teacher?

Occasionally hard to figure out how to take notes in linear fashion / turn information into notes (due to presentation style)

5) What could the instructor do to improve your learning of this subject matter?

Just make the presentation of info a little more geared toward note-taking

Note: The instructor will NOT read these responses until AFTER grades have been submitted to the Registrar's Office. Your responses are to be totally anonymous!

1) What did you like best about this course?

what I liked best about this course is that we went into every detail of just some of the few global issues.

2) What did you like least about this course?

I did not enjoy the heavy reading on this course.

3) What are the instructor's strong points as a teacher?

Strong points of this instructor is that she seemed like she was very passionate + knowledgeable of any topic discussed.

4) What are the instructor's weak points as a teacher?

Sometimes, she did not seem interested in some of the student's ideas/responses in class.

5) What could the instructor do to improve your learning of this subject matter?

I would recommend that she applied any student's response (right or wrong) to the reading.

For Semester: Fall For Course #: 110

Major: History Secondary Education Expected Grade: A-

Note: The instructor will NOT read these responses until AFTER grades have been submitted to the Registrar's Office. Your responses are to be totally anonymous!

1) What did you like best about this course? Fun, easy, and interesting; felt like I really was learning about global issues. The books, especially Stuffed and Stowed, were great reads.

2) What did you like least about this course? I wish the quizzes were more consistent/given out a little more often.

3) What are the instructor's strong points as a teacher? Kind, encouraging, and knowledgeable about the subject. She is really approachable

4) What are the instructor's weak points as a teacher? I felt like the class needed more lectures or presentations. It seemed like to me, while I love discussion, that they were used too often. Students at times had very little to say

5) What could the instructor do to improve your learning of this subject matter? Keep discussion, but use them less often; give more quizzes out to give us an incentive to read. Other than that, it was a great class!

1) What did you like best about this course?

I enjoyed the debates. I didn't speak much during them, but listening and hearing both sides of an ~~argument~~ argument was interesting

2) What did you like least about this course?

There was a lot of reading to keep up with, but based on the content of the class I understand why

3) What are the instructor's strong points as a teacher?

She lectures well and tries to get students to participate. She also kept class on track and on topic

4) What are the instructor's weak points as a teacher?

5) What could the instructor do to improve your learning of this subject matter?

more group activities
