1) What did you like best about this course?

I liked how we integrated a lot of different theoretical perspectives to our topics to help form ideologies of our own, our discussion of multinational businesses and trade deals gave me a broader global understanding.

2) What did you like least about this course?

- The long, boring reading
- not all of it

3) What are the instructor's strong points as a teacher?

Getting entire class involved and giving the students concrete examples instead of just talking

4) What are the instructor's weak points as a teacher?

none

5) What could the instructor do to improve your learning of this subject matter?

everything was good.

Major: JOURNALISM & INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS Expected Grade: B

Note: The instructor will NOT read these responses until AFTER grades have been submitted to the Registrar's Office. Your responses are to be totally anonymous!

1) What did you like best about this course?

I liked the format of the course the most — with discussion of different perspectives and then IPE concepts discussed through those perspectives.

2) What did you like least about this course?

I don't have any complaints about the course.

3) What are the instructor's strong points as a teacher?

She makes us think. She asks really pertinent, engaging, and challenging questions to make us think.

4) What are the instructor's weak points as a teacher?

I don't think she has a "weak" point, sometimes I think she should spend more time with explaining things rather than just challenging students w/ questions.

5) What could the instructor do to improve your learning of this subject matter?

I think she could bring up more up-to-date examples of IPE topics in discussion.
